

Welcome to

Down here is a full map of Greece:

Greece is in southwestern Europe.

Greece has 11.28 million people living there!!!!

The capital is Athens!

The climate is warm and sunny. Most of the time...

The natural resources are petroleum, iron ore, lead, marble, nickel, and zinc. The physical

Fun Fact:

People in Greece believed in myths such as Greek gods and goddesses, such as Zeus, Hades, Hercules, Athena, Persephone, Medusa, and monsters such as The Minotaur, Cerberus, and the Griffin.

Greece is famous for its architecture, paintings, and philosophy. Above, there is a famous ancient painting on a clay pot, another ancient Greek pot painting, and a very old, famous picture of Medusa by an old Greek artist named Caravaggio.

The cultural diffusion in Greece includes religion, food, inventions, culture, and philosophy from the U.S. and Egypt. Greece's physical environment affects trade from the fertility of the land, food, ideas and inventions. Greece's physical environment affects economy with fertile lands, tourism, and all of the art, philosophy, and architecture!